

MANY INTERESTED IN CHICKEN SHOW

WEST SIDE RINK PRESENTS LIVE-LY SCENE THESE DAYS.

IS WELL WORTH INSPECTING

From the Big Golden Eagle from Wyoming to the diminutive
Bantam Rooster.

From the solemn King of Birds who sits near the entrance and looks disdainfully at the domestic fowls to the diminutive bantam rooster whose shrill crowing is heard over above
the louder, deeper voiced roosters of high degree, the first exhibit of the Southern Wisconsin Poultry association is interesting.

The arrangement is admirable. The long sides of the rink building are lined with cages of fancy feathered stock while the main portion of the hall is likewise filled with the cages
ranged in orderly rows and gay with
the prize ribbons by Judges Iva Myers
of Crawfordville, Indiana and E. G.
Roberts of Ft. Atkinson.

Blue, red and white these ribbons
denote the judgment of the scores
as to their respective merits in the fowl kingdom. Here is a huge Plymouth Rock, weighing ten pounds,
with a blue ribbon tacked to his coop
where he can see it and he seems to know it means he is a honor winner.
A few coops away a rose comb Leghorn squats contentedly and views a similar colored tag.

There are five hundred blooded chickens in the show. Five hundred fowls that have come from many sections of the southern portion of the state but the majority are from Janesville. All are arranged according to class and even the uninitiated
can read by the labels and see just specimens of fowlkind he is viewing.

To those who a chicken is a
chicken and good according to age
and manner in preparing for table
use the exhibit is a revelation. When the average housewife pays fifteen or eighteen cents a pound for chickens
dressed the price is considered a good one but when one views a blue ribboned prize winner and asks the price they are staggered at being told $15 to $20.

It is a most complete exhibit.
Among the curiosities seen are pens
of Canadian wild geese which stick out their long necks and hiss at the unwary spectator who leans down to view them. Then there is a scowling with beautiful plumage that looks lonely in his narrow quarters. A large wire cage keeps from with-dering a flock of wild geese that are free to decoy their brethren from freedom within the range of the guns
of the skillful goose hunter.

It is an exhibit for the lover of the
fowls, but an exhibit that interests
everyone in that it educates all the visitors in chicken lore. One can not help being impressed by the pens of birds, the blue ribbons, the crowing
cocks, the clucking hens, and a half hour spent lengths into an hour before all the coops have been inspected. A successful meeting this year
means a larger and better show next year. So if you haven't had the time or inclination to drop in for a call on the chicken show yet, you had best
make use of your remaining opportunities to do so either today or tomorrow—make it today, for you will find it well worth your while, and tomorrow evening the show closes with an entire year to elapse before the advent of another.

There are at least some things of interest there for you to see, whether you raise chickens or never thought of raising 'em. What are the exhibits that would interest you? Well,
how would you like to see the chicken
that gets the premium for being the whitest bird there? The suggestion is made because it probably starts a train of thought in your mind relative to the striking contrast such a bird would afford to the traditional black skin of a marauder of coops.
The chicken which Judge Myers
decided to be the whitest was a Wyandotte hen that was numbered eight
among the entries and is the property
of W. E. Puffer of Delavan, Wis.

But if you are not interested in the
whitest bird—if you are color-blind
anyway and don't care anything about it now—then, even then, O ye Philistines, there is goodly entertainment
for you at that exhibition. There are a thousand specimens aggregated
at that show, and almost that many
by any other poultry exhibition, but

ring those held in the metropolises,
different varieties. It is a noble array, and it has not been duplicated
and in some respects it is superior to the notable ones that have taken place in the Cullum, Chicago.

When Iva Myers, Christian Anderson
wrote his charming Danish fairy-tale,
"The Ugly Duckling," which every child has read, he introduced as follows in his plot a number of ducklings
who were very comely, but not the marvellous imagination of that Master of Fairy could conceive of an un-exceptionable web-footed creature as
are to be viewed at the poultry show
in question. Sleek, glossy of feather,
they are a revelation to the eye.

Judge Myers, who returned to Crawfordville, Ind., this morning,
after completing his score-card verdicts at high noon, left in his wake
a general spirit of satisfaction with the results and a keenly stimulated sense of enterprise among both the winners and the less fortunate chicken men. Remains but the big, potent
public to get interested in the affair,
and then the industry will ultimately
attain its richly-deserved momentum.

TUBERCULAN EXHIBIT WAS MOST STRIKING

Dissection of the Diseased Stock on Corn Exchange Yesterday Witnessed by Many.

Just what tuberculosis is when it appears in the fowls, just what results it causes in the case of the animal after slain, and what a danger exists to
man and stock from diseased animals,
was explained and demonstrated yesterday afternoon on the Corn Exchange by Dr. M. P. Haveland and D. D. Clark. The demonstration is one of many that have been held recently throughout the state under the auspices of the Wisconsin Livestock Sanitary board with a view of teaching
both the farmers and citizens the danger of using cattle affected with tuberculosis. The subjects of yesterday's demonstration were found in horns near Janesville, which brought the question closer to the attention of the spectators. Perhaps an outcome of the demonstration will be a more careful inspection of cattle that are used for dairy purposes about the city and the passage of a milk ordinance that would protect the consumers of bovine fluid in Janesville.

The demonstration was instructive
and showed clearly the great dangers of having tuberculosis. State Veterinarian Dr. D. D. Clark dissected the animals that had been killed and skinned
before being brought to the demonstration place, and explained
all questions fully and accurately.
That many were interested was shown by the close attention paid to the work despite the cold atmosphere
that made it uncomfortable to remain
out of doors for any length of time.
Two of the eyes thus cut up were traced by a chicken that had been sold from the same farm in whose intestines distinct traces of tuberculosis were found. Dr. Haveland's talk was chiefly on the disease and its effects and the dangers that exist in permitting it to spread through herds.

JANESVILLE CASES ARE ON THE DOCKET

Demand for Up-to-Date Service From Janesville Street Railway to be Considered by Railway

Among the cases to be heard by the railroad commission during the present month is a demand for up-to-date
service from the Janesville street railway. It will be remembered that this case is the result of the closing down
of the Forest Park branch last summer at the time Milwaukee street bill was passed and that Harry Brown and others brought the matter to the attention of the state railway commission. This is one of the thirty-two matters that are listed for consideration. Twenty-five formal railroad cases will be called. Most of them will be adjusted or continued. They involve controversies over the rates
on coal, minimum carload weights of shoe shipments, minimum carload
weights for beer shipments, several refund cases and the demand of Watertown for communication rates
between that city and Milwaukee the same as allowed between Oconomowoc
and Milwaukee.

The Appleton water case is scheduled for argument Jan. 15. The utility cases will come on later in the month.

LIFTED QUARANTINE
ORDERS YESTERDAY
Cattle May Now Be Shipped From
New York And Pennsylvania
For Immediate Slaughter.

Gov. Davidson and State Veterinarian Clark yesterday partially removed quarantine imposed some weeks ago against shipments of cattle, hay and straw from New York
and Pennsylvania, on account of foot and mouth disease. The action today was taken in response to petitions from the eastern states. It was ordered that cattle, hay, and straw and hides might be shipped here from Pennsylvania and New York, except five New York counties, but the cattle may be shipped only for immediate slaughter and not for farm purposes. New York state authorities blame Michigan for the spread of the disease. The local quarantine against Michigan continues.

EAGLES INSTALLED THEIR NEW OFFICERS

Ceremonies Were Followed by Fine
Supper—New Members Will Be Admitted.

At the Eagle's hall last evening the local order installed officers, following
the installation by an enjoyable supper. The members of the order were out in full force, about two hundred
of them answering to the roll-call.
Besides installing their new officers,
the names of several new candidates
were put on the list, who will be admitted at the next session. Committees to take charge of the program
and supper to be given at the annual banquet next month, were also chosen.

ENJOYED MASKED BALL AT ASSEMBLY HALL

Many Fancy Costumes Appeared at
the Dance Given by the Odd Fellows.

At the Assembly hall last evening
the orders of the Odd Fellows and the Rebels held one of the most enjoyable masked dances which have been given by the lodges. The event last night was their annual ball. There was a large crowd in attendance, the maskers vying with one another in their costumes, for elegance, quaintness, or humor. The inspiration for the evening was furnished by the Knott & Hirsch orchestra, and the dances lasted until one o'clock. At eleven o'clock the grand march of the costumers was given.

Foresters held installation services
for their newly elected officers.
Deputy High Chief Ranger L. D. Murphy of Madison had charge of the ceremonies. Besides a large attendance of Janesville people there were a number from out of town present.
They were: Rev. Charles Horst, of Milwaukee; Anton Nuebaum of St.
Joseph's Court, of Madison; and John
Hester and Mr. Wellman of St.
Gregory's Court of St. Nazareth. Several good speeches were made both
by local people and out of town visitors. Rev. W. A. Goebel, of this city, Rev. Charles Horst, L. D. Murphy and Anton Nuebaum were chosen vice presidents. The following is the list of the officers for the coming year:

MUST SERVE A YEAR IN WAUPUN PRISON

Harry Shade Sentenced to Hard Labor
for Robbery of Alex. Stamper
Last Night.

This morning in municipal court
Harry Shade confessed to having committed larceny of the person, waived
examination and trial, and was sentenced to one year at hard labor in state's prison at Waupun, sentenced commencing at noon today. He will be taken to Waupun tomorrow noon
by Sheriff J. G. Scholbol.
Shade was arrested last night about ten o'clock by Officer Tom Morrissey
on complaint of Alex. Stamper. Stamper was proceeding in a rather uncertain manner toward home last evening, and Shade and another man, who had nothing to do with the robbery,
volunteered to help him on his way.
When the alley back of McNamara's
hardware store was reached Shade allowed Stamper to fall to the ground
and then rifled his pockets of the money Stamper had. Stamper cried out, attracting the attention of Officer Morrissey, who when he was told
the cause of the disturbance immediately pursued Shade, finally capturing him in his room. A search of the room was made and a dollar of the money was discovered over the springs in Shade's bed. This morning Shade told where the rest of the money, $2.01, was hidden on a board near the window of his room
and Chief Appleby went to the house
on North Academy street next to the Railroad Hotel and secured it.

Shade is a man thirty-three years
of age, of medium height and black hair slightly tinged with gray. He came to Janesville about two years ago from Pennsylvania, where he has relatives. He has been working since he has been here for Sheridan Brothers.

"Tinker" Smith Released
Frank ("Tinker") Smith was brought up in court and pleaded guilty
to the charge brought by his sister, Mrs. Young, with assault to do great bodily harm. However, on the intercession of his sister, who desired
that he should not be sentenced to Waupun, sentence was suspended on the condition that he leave the state
of Wisconsin, remain out of the state,
and conduct himself in a proper manner. Mrs. Young called on District Attorney J. L. Fisher this morning
asking that this be done and giving him a ten-dollar bill to pay Smith's car-fare out of the state and to give him a start. Sheriff J. G. Scholbol bought him a ticket and put him on the 12.50 train for Chicago.

Drunks in Court
Two drunks were brought up in court this morning. Knute Knudson of Orfordville and Tom Dougherty of Janesville pleaded guilty. This is Knudson's second offense, he having been arrested for the same charge last summer. He was given a fine of $5
and costs, amounting in all to $6.10
or a sentence of ten days in jail. He was unable to pay the fine and went to jail. Dougherty also plead guilty and was given the choice between a fine of $3 and costs or five days in jail. He asked for permission to be allowed to secure work and pay the fine and was allowed to do so.

MAKES REPORT FOR PAST YEAR'S LABOR

Mary Kimball Mission Tells What
Has Been Accomplished During Twelve Months Just Ended.

One hundred and fifty-three men
fed, 23 boys fed, 274 families furnished with food, 193 letters written, 427 calls made, employment found for five unfortunate, 78 sermons
preached, 81 meetings held, a home
found for a child—this is the record
of the Mary Kimball mission for the past year.

The following articles have been distributed: One Bible, one copy of the New Testament, one featherbed,
one pillow, seven beds, three blankets, seven coats, two sets of bed springs, one lot, an assortment of dishes, a number of knives, forks
and teaspoons, one oil stove, three framed pictures, one couch.

An unusually successful Christmas dinner marked 1908. Culinary preparations began on Monday and continued day and night until 2 p. m. of Christmas day, when dinner was served. The repeat consisted of oysters, goose, ducks, chickens, baked
ham, sundry vegetables, fruits,
salads, cakes, cookies, pies, cheese,
sandwiches, pickles, candy, coffee and in fact an abundance of almost everything desirable. One loan beneficiary
was heard to exclaim:
"Well, this is good enough for King Edward!"

Sixteen hungry babies were all observed to cram their pockets with what they were not able to eat at the table. On the following morning thirteen baskets were despatched to needy families, and three hundred gifts distributed to the children of the needy.

E. T. FISH HAD HIS HAND BADLY MANGLED

While Unloading a Heavy Piece of Machinery at the New Doty

This afternoon about half past two,
E. T. Fish, proprietor of the dray line,
had one finger so badly smashed that it had to be amputated and another
also badly crushed. The members which were injured were the index
and second fingers of his right hand.
Mr. Fish was working with his men at the New Doty machine works and they were pulling a four-ton machine
from the car into the shop. Mr. Fish was assisting and one of the rollers passed over his hand. He immediately went to Dr. Chittenden's office where the damaged digits were attended to.

BAXTER MINING CASE BEFORE U. S. COURT

Hearing in Chambers Before Judge
Sanborn on Mining Deal in Which Local Men Are Interested.

For the past three days testimony
in the suit brought by Joseph H.
Winters and Rainald W. Bronson of Isabella and Negaunee, Michigan,
respectively, to cover the sum of $10-000 they paid in purchase money on the famous Baxter mine, owned by George S. Parker, W. P. Palmer, S. B.
Lewis and Joseph H. Winters, was heard in chambers before Judge
Sanborn of the United States court at Madison. It will be remembered that the Michigan men
purchased the mine, making a payment on the property and then attempted to organize a large company,
known as the Baxter Pool, to take
the property over and develop it.
They worked the mine for a time;
then brought suit to recover the purchase price paid down, claiming misrepresentation of the property. The testimony before Judge Sanborn
brought the owners of the mine,
Messrs. Parker, Palmer, Lewis and Winters, to the stand and expert
for both the plaintiff and defendants.
The real cause of the failure to find
what they expected in the mine appears, from the testimony, to have been due to the fact the engineers
for the Baxter Pool did not follow the ore, but made their tunnel at right angles, thus missing the valuable deposits. The hearing will be continued later.

UNITED STATES GOLF ASSOCIATION MEETS

Herbert Jacques Will Be Named As President—Many Applications for the Big Tournament.

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)

New York, Jan. 8.—From many parts of the country prominent golfers have arrived in the city to attend the annual meeting of the United States Golf Association at Sherry's tonight. The ticket of officers for the ensuing year
as presented by the nominating committee is expected to go through without opposition according to the usual
custom and Herbert Jacques, of the Brookline Country Club, will be chosen president. The selection of the places for holding the annual tournaments under the auspices of the association will be made at the meeting. Applications for the annual championship have been filed by the Chicago Golf Club, which held
the tournament last in 1905, and by the Deal (N. J.) Golf and Country Club. For the open championship the applicants are the Englewood
(N. J.) Golf Club and the Chicago Golf Club. The one application for the women's championship is from
the Country Club of Lakewood, N.J.
Among other matters of interest to come before the delegates at the annual meeting are two proposed re-

ments to the constitution of the association. The first deals with the existing plans of having voting and non-voting clubs, termed "associate"
and "affiliated," and it is understood that this comes chiefly from application for joining the selection of officials to the open meeting,
instead of to a nominating committee,
as at present, many golfers favoring
the opinion that there should be an opposition ticket.

WEDDING FOLLOWS FOOTBALL ROMANCE

Ralph Kinney, One of Yale's Star
Tackles, And Miss Annie Aver-
hill Married in Texas.

Deanport, Texas, Jan. 8.—The wedding today of Miss Annie Averhill
of this city and Ralph Kinney, the star tackle on the Yale football team of a few years ago, was the culmination of a pretty romance which had its inception at a college gridiron contest.

Kinney first met his bride of today
when he was at the height of his athletic fame, one of the star performers
on the Old Eli in the game with Princeton in 1905. Miss Averhill was then a student in Dierker Cliff school in Connecticut. With a party of girl friends she attended the Yale-Princeton contest and after the game she was introduced to Kinney. A few weeks later the two met again at the Harvard game and the friendship thus begun soon ripened into love.

After his graduation from Yale Mr.
Kinney traveled considerably and then returned to New Haven to live.
During the past year he has divided
his time between Texas and Porto Rico, where he has acted as manager
of a large orange plantation.

THANKS JANESVILLE PEOPLE FOR THEIR CONTRIBUTIONS

A. K. Lockrom, superintendent of the Martin Luther Orphans' Home at Stoughton, had up to yesterday received from Janesville contributors a sum total of $7.50 towards his support. A. L. Bysted has been the local instrument in the collection of this amount.

Names on the list that are down for 50 cents apiece are A. L. Bysted, William H. H. K. Denn, Mark Baum, G. Alexander, Harry Fitch, E. M.
Hodge, Tom Smith, C. A. Dunsinger,
L. D. Sage, John Chaser. Those down

Jesse Youngclaw, Charles Dock-
horn, Walter Cox, Matt Burbanck, Roy Clark, Herbert Ringel, F. N. Lippitt.

A Queer Origin.
It is interesting, and sometimes
amusing, to trace the origin of words.
There is the word "pecuniary," for example, which, you know, means relating to money. Strange to say, its original meaning was "cattle." It seems that once were the medium of exchange between the ancient Romans, one ox being the unit of value.
The first Roman coin bore the image
of an ox, and the word "pecus" meaning an ox or a coin, according to how you used it.

LA FOLLETTE MAKES AN EDITORIAL BOW

His New Publication Very Similar to Bryan's Commoner in Many Respects.

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)
Madison, Wis., Jan. 8.—United States Senator Robert M. La Follette of Wisconsin will make his editorial bow tomorrow morning when his new political publication, "La Follette's Weekly Magazine," will be placed on sale for the first time. It is a six-page paper of about the same size as W. J. Bryan's "Commoner," and in character is somewhat like that periodical. In the opening editorial, entitled, "Claiming Our Privilege to Serve," Senator La Follette announces his purpose to discuss measures and political parties impartially and fearlessly. This paper will not shrink from making estimates of men and will from time to time call the roll in order to disclose the exact position of those who are true and those who are false to public interest. The design of the front page contains the motto, "I will know the truth, and the truth shall make you free." The cover design presents a quill writing, the word "Truth."

The first two pages of the magazine are devoted to editorial, the first of which is devoted to expressing the purposes of the publication. It tells how special interests have encroached upon the rights of the people and a long fight must be made to restore government to the people and make it truly representative. The second editorial is entitled, "The Laborer is Protected," and discusses the advisability of establishing an expert tariff commission to keep the tariff properly adjusted, rather than have congress do the work once in a long time of years. The third editorial favors an amendment to the railroad commission law of Wisconsin according to which no railroad should be allowed to raise any rate unless permission so to do be granted by the commission.

The leading articles are by J. Lincoln Stephens on the "Mind of the State," and by United States Senator Jonathan Burton of Oregon, "The Progress of La Follette and President Van Buren of the Wisconsin university, and Burton advocates the election of Gov. George E. Chamberlain of Oregon, a democrat, as United States senator, even though he is a democrat, when the legislature is republican. Chamberlain was nominated for United States senator in the primaries but the legislature, being republican, is not disposed to elect him.

A short story on "The Business," by William J. Neff, formerly on the San Francisco call, now an instructor in English in the University of Wisconsin, appears.

Belle Case La Follette, Senator La Follette's wife, and Miss Caroline La Hunt, formerly of the university domestic science department, jointly conduct a department on home and education. Mrs. La Follette devotes her first article to the vast importance of advice to women, wives, mothers and sisters, to "stretch" and "yawn." Mrs. La Follette is noted for the interest she takes in statecraft and is also a dress reformer who practices her own preachment. She says: "Stretch and yawn, Not a suppressed yawn, but a great big natural one, and repeat it several times every day of life hereafter. We can stretch and yawn away from small troubles in a minute than we can argue out of mind in a week."

BEGINS CAREER AS "TALKING BOB" EVANS

Valiant Old Sea-Dog Makes His Debut on the Lecture Platform This Evening.

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)

New York, Jan. 8.—Arrangements are completed for the public reception at Carnegie Hall this evening in honor of Rear Admiral Robert D. Evans, following his initial appearance on the lecture platform. Extensive preparations have been made for the event, which will be especially memorable owing to the fact that it will also mark the beginning of "Talking Bob" Evans' career as a public speaker. He will deliver his first lecture this evening and will make an extensive lecturing tour through all parts of the United States. Fred H. Wilson, Admiral Evans' manager, has already arranged for a number of dates in different cities throughout the country.

MADDEN TACKLES MURPHY TONIGHT

Promising Lightweight Who Recently Knocked Out Mike Glover Faces Hardest Problem of Career.

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)

New York, Jan. 8.—Frankie Madden, the most promising lightweight in the pugilistic crop of 1908, is to face the hardest proposition of his career tonight, when he tackles Tommy Murphy in a ten-round bout. The contest takes place at the National A. C., in whose arena Madden recently knocked out Mike Glover. In addition to his bout with Glover Madden has to his credit decisive victories over Leach Cross and several other opponents for lightweight honors. If he is successful in his contest with Tommy Murphy he will immediately go after Paddy McFarland, Freddie Welsh and other top-notchers in the light weight division.

WOMAN'S INTERESTS AND WOMAN'S RIGHTS

Opponents and Friends of "Suffrage" Will Meet Under Same Roof on Successing Days.

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)

New York, Jan. 8.—The opponents of woman's suffrage, whose organization is called the National League for the Civic Education of Women, held a well attended meeting at the Berkeley Theatre today, and the principal feature of interest was an address by Mrs. Mahol Dean Kolb, of Brooklyn, upon the "Social Threat and How Women Can Best Avert Their Forces for Good."

It was a strange coincidence Berkeley Theatre will, tomorrow, be the scene of a large gathering of the advocates of woman's suffrage. Under the auspices of the Equality League for Self-Supporting Women a meeting will be held to celebrate the release from prison in London of Mrs. Pankhurst, the English suffragette, who had been sentenced to three months imprisonment for "rushing" Parliament. She will leave jail tomorrow.

At the meeting tomorrow Mrs. Muriel Craig Westworth of Boston, a noted advocate of women's rights, will give a reading of the play "Votes for Women" by Elizabeth Robins, which was well received when it was played in London. This is the play on which was founded the suffragette novel "The Convert" by the same author.

Mrs. Christine Mackay and Mrs. Philip Lyndge Mackay boxes at tomorrow's meeting. Two of the upper boxes will be occupied respectively by college girls and trades union girls, and will be decorated with their banners.

OBITUARY.

La Fayette Davis.
La Fayette Davis, aged 84 years, died at the county farm this morning from the results of a paralytic stroke. Mr. Davis was an old resident of Newville.

Cornelius Stout.
Cornelius Stout, a veteran of the Civil War who has resided in Janesville since 1865, in which year he came to Wisconsin from Luzerne Co., Pa., died this morning at Lorraine Co., Pa., of heart failure. The body will be conveyed to this city for burial by Old Fellows Lodge No. 90. Surviving him here are his wife at 218 South High street; his sons, Lawrence and Neil; and his daughter, Mrs. Gertrude Stout, a student at the High School. Another daughter, Mrs. Burr Roberts, is living at Lancaster.

Cornelius Stout was born in Luzerne County, Pa., on the ninth day of October, 1824, but he is best known in Janesville, the city of his heart, where he leaves many friends to mourn his loss.

OPTICIANS WANT MORE REGULATION

In West Virginia and They Are Meeting to Formulate a Bill Which Will Secure Desired Ends.

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)

Parkersburg, W. Va., Jan. 8.—The principal object of the meeting of the West Virginia Optical Association, which opened here today, is the formulation of a bill governing the optician profession in this state. It is proposed to safeguard the interests of the profession as well as of the public by a law which will prevent incompetent men from engaging in the profession of optician. The legislature will be urged at its coming session to pass the law.

MAJ. JAS. DAWES ON RETIRED LIST

Is the First of the Army Officers to Reach the Age Limit in the Year 1909.

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)

Washington, D. C., Jan. 8.—The first retirement among the army officers for 1909 took place today, when Major James W. Dawes of the Pay Department was dropped from the active list on account of age.

Exhibit Car at Hanover, January 14th. Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway.

The exhibit car of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway, containing exhibits of farm products, fruits, etc., from the new country along its Pacific Coast extension in the Dakotas, Montana, Idaho and Washington, will be at Hanover on Thursday, January 14th.

These exhibits are interesting. They show the possibilities of this new country. You are cordially invited to visit this car and to inspect the exhibits. ADMISSION IS FREE.

The rapidly settled by a good class of farmers. The land is fertile, irrigation is not required in most sections, and crops are of large yield and of good quality. Excellent farming land is still cheap. Government homesteads may still be secured close to the new towns along this new line. This is the country where you can get a good start toward future independence.

Booklets describing this new country may be secured free of charge at P. O. Box 1, Miller, General Passenger Agent, Chicago, or from Geo. H. Haynes, Immigration Agent, 318 Marquette Bldg., Chicago.

For Fact and Judgment. It does not tell the initiative or independent spirit to resolve to hold your tongue, nor is it hypocritical to be suave and polite. The hardest person to get along with is the one who runs by false principle and speaks his mind. Half the time his principle is a matter of opinion.

The Still, Small Voice. Sure healing is not in the storm, or in the whirlwind; it is not in monarcholes, or aristocracies, or democracies, but will be revealed by the still small voice that speaks to the conscience and the heart, prompting us to a wider and wiser humanity.—Lowell.

WHO WOULD PROFIT?

The cause of woman suffrage is again attracting attention, because of new life put into the movement by English agitators. The state of Massachusetts has an organization, composed of 14,000 intelligent women who are doing what they can to oppose the scheme. In the last issue of "The Commonwealth," a quarterly published by the organization, they ask and answer the following pertinent question, "Who Would Profit?"

"Legislators who are asked this year to vote for bills conferring municipal suffrage upon women may wisely consider the question. Who would be profited by the proposed legislation?"

"Would it be the women? Only a small minority of the women ask for the privilege. To the large majority it would come as an undesired burden. In what respect would other class, the minority or the majority, profit by the grant of municipal suffrage?"

"Would it be the community? To justify this assumption it must be held that the average woman would vote not only as wisely and unselfishly as the average man, but more wisely and unselfishly. But the average man, by the very nature of his ordinary employment, is familiar with the practical questions of local government, questions of the care of the streets, lighting, policing, sewer construction, and the like. He is familiar also with the character, capacity, and records of men who are candidates for office.

"The average woman, on the other hand, is already overburdened with duties which she cannot escape and from which no one proposes to relieve her. If she is given the suffrage, it is an added duty. Is it reasonable to suppose that, called upon to perform a duty which lies outside of the ordinary employment of her life, she would do it more wisely than the average man? Would she not inevitably act hastily, impulsively, spasmodically? And, in that case, would not the community as well as she herself suffer by the change?"

BEREA COLLEGE

The Berea college, located at Berea, Kentucky, has for its mission the education of Kentucky mountaineers, both white and black. The school is conducted along lines similar to those adopted by Booker T. Washington at Tuskegee, and is under the management of Wm. G. Frost, LL. D., and the present enrollment is 1300.

The course of study is intensely practical and the good results accomplished are evidenced all through the mountain districts. The last number of "The Berea Quarterly," published at the school, contains some interesting items, which follow. The work is philanthropic, and entitled to every encouragement, for the south has a large population of whites who need enlightenment.

"The Berea Quarterly" for January contains several noteworthy articles. The recent decision of the United States supreme court sustaining the "Jim Crow law" as applied to schools conducted under state charters is discussed. The sociological condition of Lincoln's people, as "Mountain Whites" is shown. And there are many quaint and interesting notes on the Saxon survivors in the southern mountains. The picture of a nuptial feast held under an oak tree will suggest the fresh and unconventional life which "The Berea Quarterly" portrays, and the cause of educational pioneering which it represents will win large patriotic sympathy. Berea college, Kentucky, debarr'd by state law, recently sustained by the supreme court, from further reception of colored students, is raising an "adjustment fund," to enable it to continue its mountain work unimpair'd and at the same time establish a school of the Tuskegee pattern for the colored people. The case has enlisted widespread interest. Mr. Carnegie and other people of national patriotism have subscribed liberally and the effort is now being made to secure the last $50,000 in Kentucky. The Courier Journal approves the enterprise, saying that Kentucky has done less in this direction than other southern states, and that the projected school will be "of incalculable value."

The price of the quarterly is $1 a year, and it is well worth the money, as it is nicely illustrated and filled with information covering a section of the country against which much prejudice exists.

STATE CIVIL SERVICE

Next to the primary law, which is an unmitigated nuisance, the state civil service comes as near being a farce as anything imaginable. In the school department State Superintendent Cary requested the privilege, some months ago, of appointing his own inspectors, but the civil service commission decided that it would be an infringement of law.

The commission has just appointed a man to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Chief Inspector L. M. Wood. The new appointee is W. E. Larson, said to be a good man, but Supt. Cary objects to the principle on the common-sense ground that while he is held responsible, the law deprives him of authority to command respect or loyalty.

This is what Mr. Cary has to say about it, and his argument should have some weight with the legislature. What the people want is more service and less civil service nonsense, a private corporation would tolerate the nuisance, for they recognize that responsibility without authority is a burlesque. Supt. Cary says:

"It does seem a bit queer, however, that a man who is elected to fill a great and responsible office, must stand back and hold his peace, like a 'bound boy at a husking,' while other men examine and pass upon the persons who see fit to present themselves as candidates for a position highly important for the welfare of the department and the success of the work for which the officer of the state is wholly responsible.

"The man I am today appointing rural school inspector, can render the state superintendent no personal service without violating the law, but he can go out and consort with the state superintendent's enemies, seek his own personal aggrandizement, hunt up every man who has a grievance, rub salt into the wounds of every disgruntled school man or school board officer, and yet be protected by the law from dismissal, unless his doings are so clumsy and so flagrant that the officer feels confident that he can prove charges before a court jury. If an officer goes into court in such a case, however, there is nothing certain as to the outcome except the lawyers' fees, and he may have left on his hands a man who is more than ever ready to snap his fingers in the face of his superior officer.

"These defects do not inhere in the principle of civil service. They are defects, however, that ought to be remedied by the next legislature so that the presumption is that a state officer desires to do his duty, rather than that he desires to 'do' everybody that is connected with the department."

THE NEW PAPER

The new reform paper which will be published at Madison tomorrow will discuss, among other things, the following topics:

"Elimination of the control of special interests in politics and government. Return of the power to the people.

"Export tariff commission to investigate labor conditions. Probable of Gary's and Carnegie's testimony.

"Amend Wisconsin rate law so that a railroad cannot increase its rates, if a shipper complains, without a hearing before the commission followed by a favorable decision.

"A complete realization by the people of the lesson taught civilization in political intelligence and social virtue in Oregon, Wisconsin and Cleveland—Lincoln Steffens.

"Election of Gov. George E. Chamberlain, democrat, of Oregon, as United States senator. He is the choice of the primaries, but the legislature is republican—Senator Bourne."

"It is a sixteen-page paper, similar to 'The Commoner,' and its mission is to keep Wisconsin on the map as a reform pace-maker, and incidentally to keep its publisher in the foreground. Time will determine results.

The supreme court has decided against the Consolidated Gas company of New York, and that corporation will now be obliged to return several million dollars to consumers who have paid $1 for 80-cent gas for a number of years while the case has been pending in court. The gas company claimed that $10,000,000 of their capital stock was represented by good will, and on this they were paying dividends. The supreme court decided the good will asset was nil, in a corporation which had no competition, and whose franchise gave them a monopoly.

The lower house of congress has appointed a "spanking committee," composed of late recruits to the Annals club, who are expected to deal with the President in the good old-fashioned way. The senate is also

REPRODUCED COPY OF A PART OF THE EMANCIPATION PROCLAMATION.

"And by virtue of the power and for the purpose aforesaid, I do order and declare that all persons held as slaves within said designated states and parts of states, are, and henceforth shall be, free.

"And upon this act, sincerely believed to be an act of justice, warranted by the constitution upon military necessity, I invoke the consideration and judgment of mankind and the gracious favor of Almighty God."

Forty-six years ago today, a period well within the memory of many living men, Abraham Lincoln issued his most important order and set free over 3,000,000 slaves. The circumstances of the event are matters of history which every schoolboy knows. One hundred days prior to the first of the year, September 22, Lincoln had given formal notice that he would declare slaves free on and after June getting ready to do business, and there is likely to be fun all along the line. In the meantime the President is preparing his arsenal for the jungles of Africa, while a bomb is shod into the camp of the enemy, now and then, as occasion demands.

The question of a bond issue, to meet current expenses, confronts congress, and will require attention at an early date. The nation is running at high pressure, with no prospect for curtailment of expenses. Revenue receipts have fallen off materially since the panic, and a reduction of the tariff will show increased shrinkage.

The $29,000,000 fine case, against the Standard Oil company, is less popular than a year ago, and Judge Ladd refuses to have anything more to do with it. Other Chicago judges seem to be troubled with cold feet. The cheap notoriety gained in the case appears to have lost caste, under the influence of a return to sanity.

It is estimated that the farms of the country represent an investment of $25,000,000,000, and that they produced in 1908 products to the value of $8,000,000,000, which means a return of about 32 per cent. That's a good return on the money, better by far than the average in any other kind of business.

Milwaukee has forwarded $12,000 to the Italian sufferers and more is to follow. Janesville should get in line, say 1. And so his New Year's peace

GEN. CIPRIANO CASTRO AS HE APPEARS IN EUROPE TODAY.

It is generally supposed that General Castro will never return to Venezuela. He and his staff are now in Berlin, Germany, and so well does he like the place that he has decided to remain there and with this in view has taken up quarters in the residence district.

While General Castro may be a sick man, it is generally believed that other influences than his illness took him so hurriedly from the southern republic. He and his staff prefer Paris.

Some Results From Tooth Neglect

We all want to be healthy and well. Good health and poor teeth never go hand in hand.

Some teeth are tender, propensities, and people say:

"Don't touch that tooth, Doctor, I have to do all my eating on the other side."

This means that one-half of our dental equipment is put out of commission simply because we fail to have the bad tooth put in order.

Food remains undigested in the stomach, it swelled in lumps.

Without proper chewing your food does you little good.

BRIEF LOCAL NEWS.

Auditing Committee Adjourns: Auditing Committee No. 9 has completed its checking of the accounts of all the disbursing officers in the county, and the members will return to their respective home towns; E. C. Huskins to Edgerton, J. C. McEvoy to Beloit, A. C. Gray to Evansville. The results of the auditing will be submitted to the county board, a body composed of 39 members which goes into session on the 12th of this month.

Thought Dog Was Stolen: Complaint was made to the police station this morning by a lady, boarding at the Park hotel, that a red cocker spaniel which she had let out of her room for a few minutes, was missing, and she thought that it had been taken by one of the members of "The Witching Hour" troupe which played here last night. A telephone message was sent to the police at Kenosha as that was their destination, to look for the dog.

Eighteen Sleepers: Eighteen men made application for sleeping accommodation at the city lockup last evening.

Fund Increases: John Fitzgerald, $2, and F. F. Lewis, $5, were the two additions this morning to the $140 subscribed for the Italian relief fund.

Kickball and Basketball: In kickball at the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium last evening, the Spuds triumphed over the Murphy's by a score of 6 to 4. A big intermediate basketball game comes off tomorrow night when the local Y. M. C. A. plays the Janesville team in the gymnasium of the latter.

William Pineda has been elected captain of the local intermediates and a formidable front is to be made.

hesitate to say the ninth international tournament of the American Bowling Congress will be the biggest and best ever. At Cincinnati last year they had 362 American teams, while Pittsburgh looked for 450 American teams, and general interest and enthusiasm which has been displayed bears out the prediction. The brunt of the tournament work rests on Mr. Meyer's shoulders, and that in itself guarantees success.

The Duquesne garden is situated in the best residence district of Pittsburgh, about 20 minutes' ride on 12 street car lines which pass within two blocks or directly by the garden from the downtown district. It is, in fact, the headquarters of Greater Pittsburgh and is used for such purposes as conventions, receptions, automobile shows, horse shows and other meetings of its character.

MOVING PICTURES 'BURIED'

Fire in Omaha Does Damage Estimated at $170,000.

Omaha, Neb., Jan. 8.—A fire starting from a spark from a cigar falling among a lot of loose moving picture films caused a loss estimated at $170,000 in the Karbach block at Eleventh and Douglas streets yesterday. The fire originated in the room of the Omaha Film Company on the fourth floor and was practically confined to those rooms, although smoke and water did considerable damage to the property of adjoining tenants. The Omaha Film Company, which is said to be a branch of the firm of W. J. Swanwick of Chicago, estimates its loss on film and apparatus at $150,000. The damage to the building is given at $7,000. The balance of the loss is divided among a large number of offices.

GOTHAM FIREMEN BUSY.

Three Serious Blazes at Once—Loss is About $1,250,000.

New York, Jan. 8.—The fire-fighting forces in the downtown section of New York had their work cut out for them last night by a series of fires within a radius of a mile or two. The fires were at 58 and 100 Hudson street, at Heater street and the Bowery and at 134 Crosby street. Each assumed threatening proportions and called out many of the city's fire apparatus.

It required nearly three hours to subdue the three fires, which caused a loss estimated at $1,250,000. No lives were lost, but there were a number of accidents which involved injury to firemen or citizens. No one was fatally hurt.

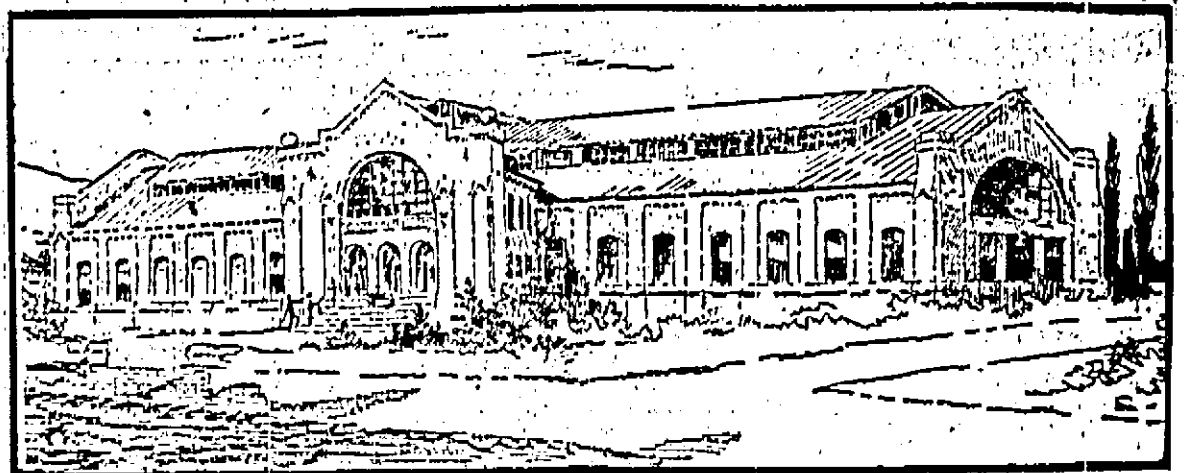

An Old Prayer.

The four-line prayer frequently taught to children, "Now I lay me down to sleep," etc., appeared first in the old "New England Primer." This book appeared as early as 1691. In that year its second edition was advertised by Benjamin Harris of Boston. The oldest copy known to be in existence is dated 1737. In the early editions the word "take" was inserted before the word "may."

AMOS REHBERG & COMPANY Three Stores, Clothing and Shoes On the Bridge

Secretary Cortelyou, Comptroller Murray and Deputy Comptroller Kane of the Treasury Department.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 7.—With all its boasted strength and solidity, it is a well-known fact that the national banks are not receiving the attention at the hands of the bank examiners that many think they should. In contrast with the average state bank examination their work is far below what it should be. This is not the fault of the examiners, for they are all competent men, but it is due to the system now in vogue.

Under the few system a comptroller does not direct the routes of the examiners. Those men pay their own expenses out of the gross amount of their fees and therefore lay out routes in such a manner that the expenses may be kept to a minimum, following a certain program month after month, and it is to their advantage to hurry the examinations to the utmost. When it is attempted to examine a national bank in anything like a thorough manner in the one to three days allowed for examination, the work becomes far too arduous for any set of examiners to accomplish.

The treasury department, under the direction of Secretary Cortelyou and with the cooperation of Comptroller Murray and Deputy Comptroller Kane, has taken this matter up and now are asking for a complete reorganization of the inspection department. They plan to put the examiners on a salary per diem and expense basis and abolish the present fee system. This will involve a considerable increase in expense, but it comes upon the recommendation of many banks who would themselves be the ones to lose by the increased expense. The more conservative national bankers feel that the additional expense would be more than made up to them by having a thorough examination of every national bank.

TILLMAN INVOLVED

President Tells Senate He Had Solon Shadowed.

"LAND GRAB" WAS THE CAUSE

Replies Concerning Work of Secret Service Not Yet Made Public—Perkins Committee Wants Mr. Roosevelt's Message Laid on Table.

Washington, Jan. 8.—President Roosevelt directed that Senator Tillman of South Carolina be shadowed by secret service operatives, in order to find out whether he was interested in a "land grab" in Oregon. What the detectives learned is before the senate now.

The information was contained in a communication from President Roosevelt sent in response to a request made by Senator Tillman to the heads of the executive departments for a statement of the activities of secret service operatives. Exhaustive replies were made by the various departments and all of these were forwarded to Senator Tillman by the president. They have not been made public, and Senator Tillman announced that they would not be given out until after they had been considered by a subcommittee of the committee on appropriations, which will be charged with the duty of acting upon that portion of the president's annual message relating to the secret service and criticizing members of congress for their restriction of its use.

Cause of the Inquiry.

Through the fact that several senators had advanced information of the character of the "report" which was to be sent to the senate, it was learned that the investigation of Senator Tillman followed an attack which he made in the senate nearly a year ago upon an Oregon land company, which had used his name as one of the persons interested in the concern. Previous to that attack Senator Tillman had introduced a resolution directing the attorney general to prosecute suits against an Oregon railroad corporation which had received land grants in the late sixties for a line from a California point to Portland, Ore. Mr. Tillman said that the use of his name was without authority, and as a result it is declared that several persons interested in the land grants became angered.

Some of the interested parties are reported to have sent to President Roosevelt copies of letters alleged to have been written by Senator Tillman indicating that he had an interest either in one of the land companies or would be benefited through land companies obtaining possession of the grants in question.

Will Ask Tabling of Message.

As disrespectful and unresponsive to the inquiry of the house, the Perkins committee, when it reports into today, will recommend that President Roosevelt's secret service message of January 4 be laid on the table. A similar request will be made for the tabling of that portion of the president's annual message relating to the secret service on the ground that it reflects upon the integrity of the members of the house.

The special committee concluded its consideration of the message yesterday and drafted its report, which will be presented by Mr. Perkins of New York. The unusual and extreme course advised by the committee—that of declining to consider any communication from any source which, in the judgment of the house, is not respectful—is likely to create a sensation when it is read.

Culbertson Raps President.

Characterizing the action of the president in directing the attorney general not to prosecute the United States Steel corporation for its absorption of the Tennessee Coal and Iron Company as "another arbitrary and lawless act of the chief magistrate," Senator Culbertson of Texas introduced a resolution in the senate yesterday instructing the committee on the Judiciary to report at as early a day as practicable whether in the opinion of that committee the president was authorized to permit such absorption.

Mr. Culbertson at considerable length criticized the president and insisted that congress had the right to give directions to a head of an executive department under certain conditions.

Senator Hopkins declared that the Texas senator was not properly representing the president and said that Mr. Roosevelt had not approved the action of the steel corporation, but that he had merely "not felt it his duty to oppose such action."

Want Cook and Miss Whaley Found.

Los Angeles, Cal., Jan. 8.—A letter has been received by the police department from the chief of police of Hartford, Conn., asking that detectives search for Rev. J. Cook and Miss Florence Whaley, the eloping couple from Long Island, who after their sensational escape in the east, were discovered a year ago living in California. The reason of the Hartford police desiring to know the whereabouts of Cook and the girl is unknown.

EIGHT NIGHT RIDERS CONVICTED OF MURDER

Six May Be Sentenced to Hang—Others Escape with 20 Years in Prison.

Union City, Tenn., Jan. 8.—The eight night riders on trial for the killing of Capt. Ranken were found guilty last night by the jury. Six of them, Garrett Johnson, T. H. Burton, Clay Ransom, Fred Pinlon, Arthur Clear and Sam Applewhite, were convicted of murder in the first degree with mitigating circumstances. Bob Hoffman and Bud Morris escaped with a second degree verdict, their punishment being fixed at 20 years in the penitentiary.

The punishment of the six first named defendants was left to the court, and may be death or life imprisonment. The defense filed a motion for a new trial, which was set for hearing to-morrow and which will be overruled, as indicated by the court, when sentence will be pronounced. The court probably will sentence the six first named defendants to death.

The defendants took the verdict with calmness, as they had been expecting it since the closing of the arguments. Attorney Pierce turned to them when it was announced, and said: "We will tear this case to pieces in the supreme court."

The state expected a verdict of first degree murder in all eight cases, and was visibly disappointed. Bob Hoffman, one of the men to escape with 20 years, is the man who, according to the confession of Frank Kehringer, fired the shot which killed Capt. Ranken as he was being drawn up by the rope.

WANTS LOBBYIST SUPPRESSED.

That and Liquor Traffic Restriction Urged by Warner.

Lansing, Mich., Jan. 8.—A law to suppress the legislative lobbyist and further restrictive measures against the liquor traffic were recommended by Gov. Fred M. Warner, in his third inaugural message, submitted to the Michigan assembly yesterday.

The executive says: "The professional lobbyist who stands ready at all times to serve whatever interest is ready to pay him the price should be banished utterly from the halls of legislation, and those representatives of legitimate interests who are concerned properly with respecting legislation should be required to register and disclose the sources of their employment and the measures which they either favor or oppose. The proper discharge of your duty to your constituents demands that this needed legislation be supplied at an early date."

The executive recommends that smaller political units, the cities, villages and townships, be given power to restrict or abolish the liquor traffic.

GASOLINE EXPLOSION FATAL.

Woman Killed, Husband and Child Having Narrow Escapes.

St. Louis, Jan. 8.—Mrs. A. Fitzgibbon, her clothing aflame from an explosion of gasoline, threw herself on a bed beside her sleeping husband and three-year-old daughter early yesterday, then rushed from the house and fell dead in the doorway of her home at 900 Benton street. Fitzgibbon was awakened by the flames that had communicated themselves to the bedding and was severely burned while rescuing her daughter. Both will recover.

Mrs. Fitzgibbon is supposed to have mistaken the gasoline for kerosene and to have poured it on the kitchen fire.

SAN DIEGO'S FOUNDER DIES.

"Father" Horton Passes Away and California City Mourns.

San Diego, Cal., Jan. 8.—Almonson Horton, founder of the present San Diego and its oldest inhabitant, died yesterday, aged 85 years, as a result of infirmities incident to old age. In 1867 "Father" Horton, as he was universally known, surveyed and purchased at auction for 25 cents an acre, the 880 acres of land around the bay upon which San Diego now stands. Every flag in this city is at half-mast. Beside being the oldest local inhabitant, Horton was the second oldest Elk in America.

Accused of $1,000,000 Forgeries.

Oakland, Cal., Jan. 8.—F. H. Signor, real estate promoter and mining broker of this city, was arrested last night on complaint sworn to by James H. Murray, a multi-millionaire banker and mining man of Montana, Salt Lake and Seattle, but more recently of Monterey, Cal., charging Signor with forgeries aggregating nearly $1,000,000. Signor is alleged to have forged Murray's name to four notes of $100,000 each, as well as to numerous other negotiable documents.

Hayman Buys Frohman's Theater.

New York, Jan. 8.—The Empire theater, now under lease to Charles Frohman, was sold under the hammer yesterday, together with three other buildings on Broadway, for $350,000, to Al Hayman of the theatrical firm of Al Hayman & Co. Mr. Hayman is a close business associate of Mr. Frohman.

Missouri Assembly Organized.

Jefferson City, Mo., Jan. 8.—Permanent organization of both houses of the Missouri legislature was consummated yesterday, the caucuses being accepted or rejected by strict party voting. A. A. Speer (Rep.) was chosen speaker of the house and George W. Humphrey (Dem.) was made president pro tempore of the senate.

BURIED IN A TRENCH

Thirteen Hundred Victims of Quake Laid at Rest.

PITIFUL SIGHT AT MESSINA

Archbishop Blesses Grave 100 Feet Wide—Villa San Giovanni Finally Gets Relief—Sicilians Hear of Disaster on Reaching New York.

Messina, Jan. 8.—Thirteen hundred bodies of earthquake victims were placed yesterday in a trench 100 feet wide and 30 feet deep, in the cemetery at Mare Grasso, and then Archbishop Ruffini blessed the grave.

The dead were piled one on top of the other and the bodies covered with quicklime. The prelate was followed to the cemetery by a large gathering of survivors whose lamentations mingled with the Latin words of the service and benediction.

Subsequently the archbishop walked through the ruins and blessed the military hospital, the military college, the barracks and the archbishop's house, considering these wrecked edifices, as no many cemeteries. Under them were the corpses of soldiers, students, policemen and monks.

Valuable Put on Steamer.

All the valuables found among the ruins are being taken on board the steamer Duca di Genova in the bay. Currency to the amount of $3,500,000, including the contents of the safe of the Sicilian American bank, was transferred to this vessel. A banker named Maurematti, who was one of the richest residents, lost everything. He went to the authorities barefooted and half clothed and asked for a pair of shoes and an overcoat.

With the exception of Sant Andrea Avebilio, all the churches in Messina have been destroyed.

New Shocks Topple Over Ruins.

Naples, Jan. 8.—Dispatches received here state that severe earthquake shocks occurred at Monteleone and Palmi last evening. The ruins of the houses were shaken down and the people were thrown into a panic.

Ruined Town Gets First Aid.

Villa San Giovanni, Jan. 8.—The first train crawled into Villa San Giovanni shortly before noon yesterday, re-establishing the link with the outside world, for the distracted people have for the past ten days been in complete isolation. British ships also came and put ashore enormous stores to be distributed to the sufferers by the relief party. Many persons were killed at this place, and practically all the houses were overthrown, and the survivors have suffered greatly because of lack of shelter from the cold and rain and lack of food.

The Anglo-American club of Rome is represented by a small party of rescuers who are camping in the vicinity of Villa San Giovanni, where they have erected a camp hospital.

Deputies Are in Session.

Rome, Jan. 8.—The Italian chamber of deputies opened today in extraordinary session to adopt such legislative measures as are necessary to relieve the distress and make good the damage in the earthquake district.

Speaking to the Associated Press, Premier Giolitti summarized the work accomplished by the government and said that everything possible had been done to help the sufferers.

"It must be remembered that the destruction accomplished by the earthquake included all means of communication," he said. "Consequently, although the terrible shock occurred Monday morning, December 28, before daylight, I received the first message now only at five o'clock on the evening of the same day."

First Hear of Disaster.

New York, Jan. 8.—Four hundred Sicilian steamer passengers on the steamer Germania, which arrived yesterday from Naples, were stricken with grief when they learned for the first time of the disaster which had befallen their relatives and friends in Messina. Not a word of the earthquake had reached them until the steamer reached her dock, when a reporter boarded the vessel and through an interpreter broke the news to them. At first they were inclined to be incredulous and seemed not to realize that any of them were concerned until one of the passengers from Messina asked whether the earthquake had damaged that city.

Messina Is Wiped Out.

"My whole family is there," shrieked the passenger. "My poor wife and children; they are all dead." The heart-broken Sicilian threw himself on the deck and though his fellow passengers crowded around and endeavored to comfort him he continued to bewail his fate. Others thronged about the interpreter and questioned him frantically about the disaster and as each new detail showing the great loss of life was related those coming from the earthquake region wept and wrung their hands or ran shrieking about the deck.

YOUNG WOMAN GONE; ENGLAND IS MYSTIFIED

Violet Charlesworth, Whose Career Has Been Picturesque Reported Killed in Strange Way.

London, Jan. 8.—The mysterious disappearance and the remarkable career of Miss Violet Gordon Charlesworth are furnishing the English public with a sensation equal to that of the Stollen case in Paris. Miss Charlesworth, an attractive spinster of 25, who lived with her parents in Bodega St. Asaph, Wales, has been reported as killed while motorizing in the direction of Penmaenmawr with her sister and a chauffeur on Saturday.

The sister and the chauffeur aver that the motor came into collision with the retaining wall of a road along the edge of a cliff overlooking the sea and that Miss Charlesworth was thrown over the wall into the sea. The sister and the chauffeur gave the foregoing account to the local authorities, and since then the members of the family have declined to see inquirers or to give further details. Those who have examined the scene of the supposed tragedy do not consider it possible that the body could have been washed away. A woman's hat was found upon the rocks, but there was no indication of a body having been thrown over the cliff.

Miss Charlesworth's picturesque career suggests that of Mme. Humbert. She said that she was heiress of a Gen. Gordon, her grandfather, who left her $744,000, which was to be paid over to her on her twenty-fifth birthday, January 13, with accumulated interest, making the whole amount $2,500,000. Miss Charlesworth usually gave her name as Gordon and visited London frequently alone. She operated heavily upon the London Stock Exchange and, according to the Evening News, owes one broker $50,000. She took a large country place at Inverness last summer, which was sumptuously furnished, the walls being draped with the Gordon plaid. She had four motor cars.

The story of her death is generally disbelieved, although her parents have offered $100 for the recovery of the body. The disappearance, and the family's secrecy are causing endless speculation.

Moses Mann Is Remanded.

New York, Jan. 8.—Virta of Inebria corpus and carterian issued in behalf of Moses Mann, under indictment in connection with the cotton report leak scandal, were dismissed yesterday by Judge Ward in the United States circuit court. In his opinion Judge Ward sustained United States Commissioner Shields, who committed Mann to await service of a warrant calling for his removal to Washington for trial. The prisoner was remanded.

St. Paul, Minn., Jan. 8.—Eight companies of the Twenty-eighth Infantry, in command of Col. Owen M. Sweet, arrived at Port Snelling yesterday from Cuba.

WARRANT OUT FOR CHEIRO.

He Asserts in London His Innocence of Embezzlement.

Paris, Jan. 8.—A warrant charging embezzlement was issued in this city yesterday for the arrest of "Count" Louis Hamon, formerly known in America and Europe as "Cheiro, the Palmist," who went to London following the allegation of two American women that he had defrauded them of valuable stocks.

London, Jan. 8.—"Count" Louis Hamon, who left Paris after being charged by Mrs. Julia P. Newell and Miss Josephine Penmorey of New York with defrauding them of stocks sold to be worth $500,000, was located in London yesterday. He said that the transaction on which the charge of fraud is based was legitimate. Mrs. Newell and Miss Penmorey appended to him a year ago, according to his story, to extricate them from a stock market deal in New York in which they were heavy losers. He succeeded in saving a part of their fortune, and rendered them regular accounts. Last November he called upon the two women to redeem their stock, giving them plenty of notice. As they did not comply the stock was sold, leaving, according to "Count" Hamon, $7,000 due them. He says he is ready to pay the women whatever an expert appointed by a French court finds to be due them.

Fleets Cause Train Wreck.

Hollington, Wash., Jan. 8.—Wrecked by fleets who threw the switch open, locked it and put out the lantern so the engineer could not see the peril, Great Northern train No. 272, north-bound, left the track just south of Hollington yards at Commercial Point, at eight o'clock last night. The engine was almost completely submerged in the bay, the mail car and baggage coach were derailed, and the mail car was killed and two men injured.

Mean to Do Things Thoroughly.

A Chicago woman suffragist accuses Adam of being a loafer and bringing about all the trouble. It took a long time to turn the tables on the original man behind the theory that a woman is always to blame for everything, but now that the suffragettes have started to even things, it is fearful evidence of their thoroughness that they are starting at the beginning.—Baltimore American.

Dolls of Korean Children.

Korean children make their own dolls from bamboo and a dried grass much like cornstalk, which serves for hair. The faces are mere daubs of white and the rest is left to the child's imagination and the doll's beauty. The doll with all the desired attributes of the most finished French beauty.—Bohemian Magazine.

Pomona Poison a Hundred.

Washington, Jan. 8.—Pomona poisoning is thought to have been the cause of 100 patients and employees of St. Elizabeth's, the federal hospital for the insane, becoming suddenly ill after dinner several days ago, and the hospital authorities are investigating.

Gasoline on Fire Costs Two Lives.

Greentown, Ind., Jan. 8.—Gasoline used to start a fire in a stove nearly wiped out the family of William Wilcox here yesterday. David Wilcox was instantly killed, his mother fatally hurt and two brothers, Morton and Harrison, badly burned.

Suffocated in His Hat.

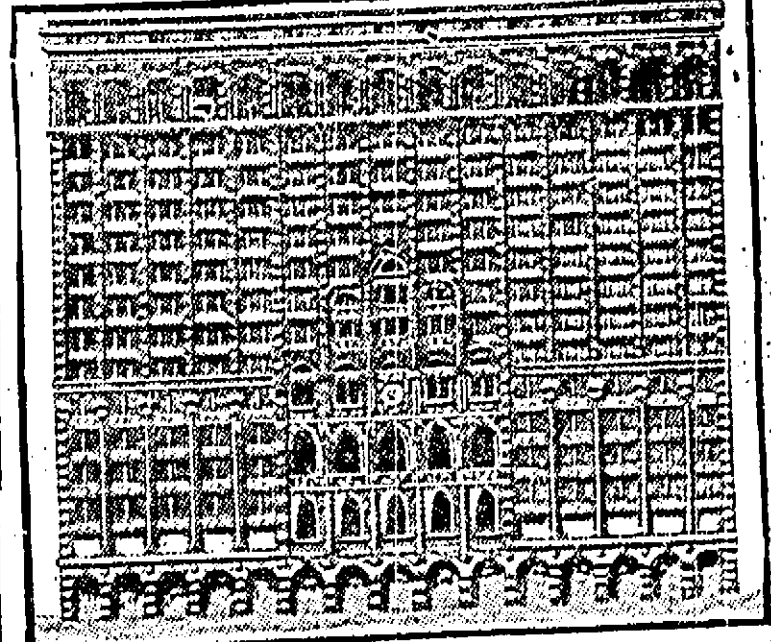

"Fell into his hat and suffocated." This is the ludicrous account on the death certificate of Alfred Barlow, who was found dead by the roadside in North Tarrytown, N.Y., by a neighbor. The man was on his way to his home, and tripped and fell. His derby hat slipped down over his eyes, and his face was forced into it. The man never recovered sufficiently to extricate himself, dying of suffocation.

Woman Her Own Bank.

The extraordinary manner in which large sums of money are carried about or hoarded by the French people is illustrated by the case of a woman at Clermont (Oise), of whose effects an inventory was taken on her removal to an asylum. In the pocket of her petticoat were found bank notes to the value of $2,400 and a check on the Bank of France for $1,080.

THE MOST UNIQUE CHURCH IN THE WORLD, COMBINING RELIGION AND BUSINESS UNDER ONE ROOF.

Pittsburgh is to have the only church in the world which combines religion and business under one roof. If the plans of the First Evangelical Protestant church of that city are carried out, Architect Ernst has drawn up plans and submitted them to the fathers of the church for this unique building.

The First German Evangelical church is located in one of the congested business districts of the Stucky city, and is also occupied by this church is much needed for business purposes. The church, however, has held its services on this site for nearly 150 years, and for sentimental reasons as well as the convenient location the members did not wish to seek other parts of the city for the new church. This unique plan is the outcome of a compromise, which, if carried through, will give Pittsburgh the only church of its kind in the world. The building plot is 21x110 feet, bounded by Smithfield street, Sixth avenue, Montour way and Strawberry alley, and is thus accessible from all sides.

The church is noted for its care of the poor and unfortunate of the city, and this is one of the big factors in advancing the cause of a combined church and business block. It is certain to prove an excellent investment for the church, and they would thus have ample funds to carry on their relief work in a much broader way.

Buick Cars Arrive Today

This is exactly as promised December 31st and shows the promptness of the factory.

With pleasure we announce the arrival of our two demonstrators, each separate in its class.

Here is proof that the entire country is awakening to the structural, operative and economical advantages of the Buick cars.

To prove this we ask you to find an owner of one model and then find an owner of another model. You will find them both bubbling over with enthusiasm. For instance, if an owner of a Buick Model 10 tells a story of tremendous achievements the Model F men will match it with one just as wonderful.

THE TRUTH AND FACTS ARE that each is perfectly adapted to its own particular purposes and class and that each model of the different models are representatives of the highest efficiency attainable and that no other make of cars are giving such superb satisfaction to any army of owners as the Buick cars. They are firmly fixed in a position of unqualified leadership.

Therefore we say a demonstration will demonstrate more than can be said of either model.

It is to your own interest to secure a demonstration then. It will place you under no obligation.

Yours for service, square deals and courteous treatment,

BUICK AND WHITE STEAMERS.

THE GOLDEN EAGLE

YOU'VE got a chance now to get some of the best shirts made at prices that make buying by the half dozen or more a wise move.

We begin Saturday our regular clearance of Manhattan shirts; it's an event which those who know anything about shirts in general, and Mannhattans in particular, have been waiting for and looking forward to.

We include in this sale our entire surplus stock and broken lines of Manhattan shirts; all patterns; all sizes; made in the most perfect manner and style.

Here are the figures:

Shirts that have been $3.50, $3.00 and $2.75 now at $1.90.

Shirts that have been $2.50, 2 and $1.75 now at $1.50.

Shirts that have been $1.50 now $1.15.

Manhattan shirts are the finest ready-to-wear shirts made; they are better in quality and finish than the ordinary made-to-measure shirts. These prices are a remarkable advantage.

ZIEGLER'S BIG 25% OFF CASH SALE IS OUT OF THE ORDINARY

It is our desire that the public know the difference between this SALE of ours and the "Sales" ordinarily held at this season of the year. Our sole wish is to reduce the quantity of high grade clothing we have on hand and turn it into cash and to create a widespread, keen interest at a time when really we should be securing the full price for stock—because the clothes are WORTH the prices we ask at all times; but as before stated, to create instant interest and move the goods quickly we allow you to pick from an assortment not excelled for quality by any retailer in the country, your choice at 14 less than regular figures. We are rather opposed to reduced price sales usually, because our regular prices are consistent with quality and our profits not unreasonable.

When we face the fact that winter only really began on December 21 and is, therefore, but a few weeks old—that all of our blizzardy and blustery, zero weather is here and yet to come—it seems rather ridiculous to make reductions at this time, yet so thoroughly is Janesville educated in the traditions of trade, that a reduction is expected and even demanded. We meet the public more than half way every time. You can pick from this stock your choice as easily as if an experienced clerk waited upon you and with the knowledge of having secured the proper price reduction. All prices, both former and present, marked in plain figures. Every garment in the store is included and fancy and solid colors are embraced in the offer and this sale—gives opportunity of becoming acquainted with the highest grade clothing in the United States.

The Big Clothing Values for Men

The Hart, Schaffner & Marx Suits and Overcoats are considered to be the very best clothing made, probably also the best known clothing. The designer for this firm is probably the highest priced artisan in his line in the world and he earns his money. H. S. & M. styles are conclusive of his mastery of the art. The science of material selections and general manufacture in the H. S. & M. factory leaves nothing to add for betterment—the result is the BEST clothing and this we offer you now at 25 per cent less than the figures of a month ago. You are doubtless familiar with the fact that we sell the best strictly Union made clothing also that the world produces. These are placed on sale at 25 per cent off every garment. The goods for young men of the extreme styles and the conservative quiet styles are here in abundance.

Note the Way the Reduction Affects Prices:

FORTY YEARS AGO

Janesville Daily Gazette, January 8, 1869.—The large frame warehouse, on River street, owned by H. B. Ford, near the railroad embankment, and used by him for storing copper's stock and barrels, was burned last night about eight o'clock. The building was a wooden structure, worth, probably $1200 or $1500 and was insured for $1,000. It was filled with finished work and stock to the value of at least $1200, which was insured for $1000. How the fire originated is a mystery, although it is asserted that smoke was smoldering in the vicinity some time before the fire broke out. Fortunately, a number of horses, which were stalled in the building, were got out, together with harnesses and wagons. The flames leaped upward with great fierceness, and threw a lurid glare over the entire city.

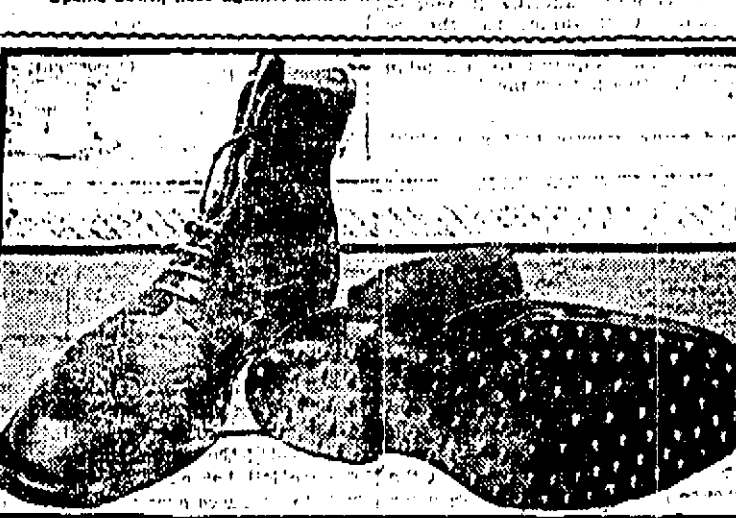

Anniversary of the Battle of New Orleans.—Today, January 8th, is the anniversary of the battle of New Orleans. That event, as worthy to be remembered, as it is, in a military point of view, when compared with the great contest of our recent war, looks small. When it is borne in mind, however, how limited were the resources at the command of General Jackson and how admirable the results achieved, it will readily be admitted that he will continue to be remembered in the future, as he has been in the past, the model of a commander. While the government stands, the 8th of January will be duly celebrated.

A large Pontian Meeting.—There was a very large gathering of the Pontian Brotherhood of this city, in the Court House Room last evening. The meeting was presided over by Mr. James McDowd and speeches were made by Wm. Kennedy of this city, and speeches were made by Major Wm. MacWilliams, of Philadelphia, central organizer of the Brotherhood. The gathering was decidedly enthusiastic.

On a quiet street in Washington, where he daily piles his trade as a shoemaker, is the unassuming maker of what the president considers the most serviceable shoes on the market. Already the shoes are completed and in the president's possession. They are strong, waterproof and completely adapted to better facilitate walking. This is not the first like honor conferred upon this humble tradesman. Admiral Dewey wore a pair of white buckskin shoes amid the shot and shell on the bridge of the Olympia during the famous battle of Manila, which this same man made.

Beach Hargis and his mother. This picture was taken during the last trial, which resulted in a disagreement of the jury.

The Hargis trial is over for a few weeks until a new trial is undertaken by the prosecution. The patriotic and devoted mother, however, are still in the minds of all who have been following the case, and their devotion to the son strikes a sympathetic chord in all of us.

Such devotion, such motherlove, as Mrs. Hargis has shown this murderer since he left his mother's arms, the father, whom he killed, was a notorious bad man. The two have made her life one of sorrow. But in this time of her son's trouble all is for the grandest passion in the world.

$18,000.00 HOUSEHOLD GLASS IS BROKEN IN THE U. S. ANNUALLY

Causes of Breakage Many and Varied—"Home-Made Refrigerator" Shares Responsibility.

"FIGURING that the output of the glass manufacturing establishments for one year equals the breakage, the broken glass of a household becomes an item of no small importance. Whether it be the lamp chimney, cut glass bowl or plain goblet which sustains the fracture, the amount of breakage must equal the amount of production, or the factories would of necessity have to close down."

It was Statistical Sam talking to the members of the kitchen cabinet, just after he had "set 'em up" to the cigars.

"To continue," he said, "the glass most often handled is most often the first to be broken. That glass which enters into the furnishings and utensils of kitchen and dining room receives the hardest usage and bears the brunt of damage. It is safe to say it constitutes one-third of all the glass broken in the United States, which would mean an amount of more than $18,000,000 value, or slightly over $1 a year for each American family."

"Allowing twelve ordinary goblets for each family in the United States, and those 180,000,000 goblets converted into one goblet would be sufficiently large, inverted, to enclose the capitol at Washington."

"Don't you think you are a little too conservative on your estimate of broken household glass?" interrupted a member of the kitchen cabinet who had been doing a little rapid figuring of his own. "It will run considerably over a dollar's worth a year at our house, or any other house where there are children."

"I know," answered Statistical Sam, "here's my own list for one year, with what the broken articles cost:"

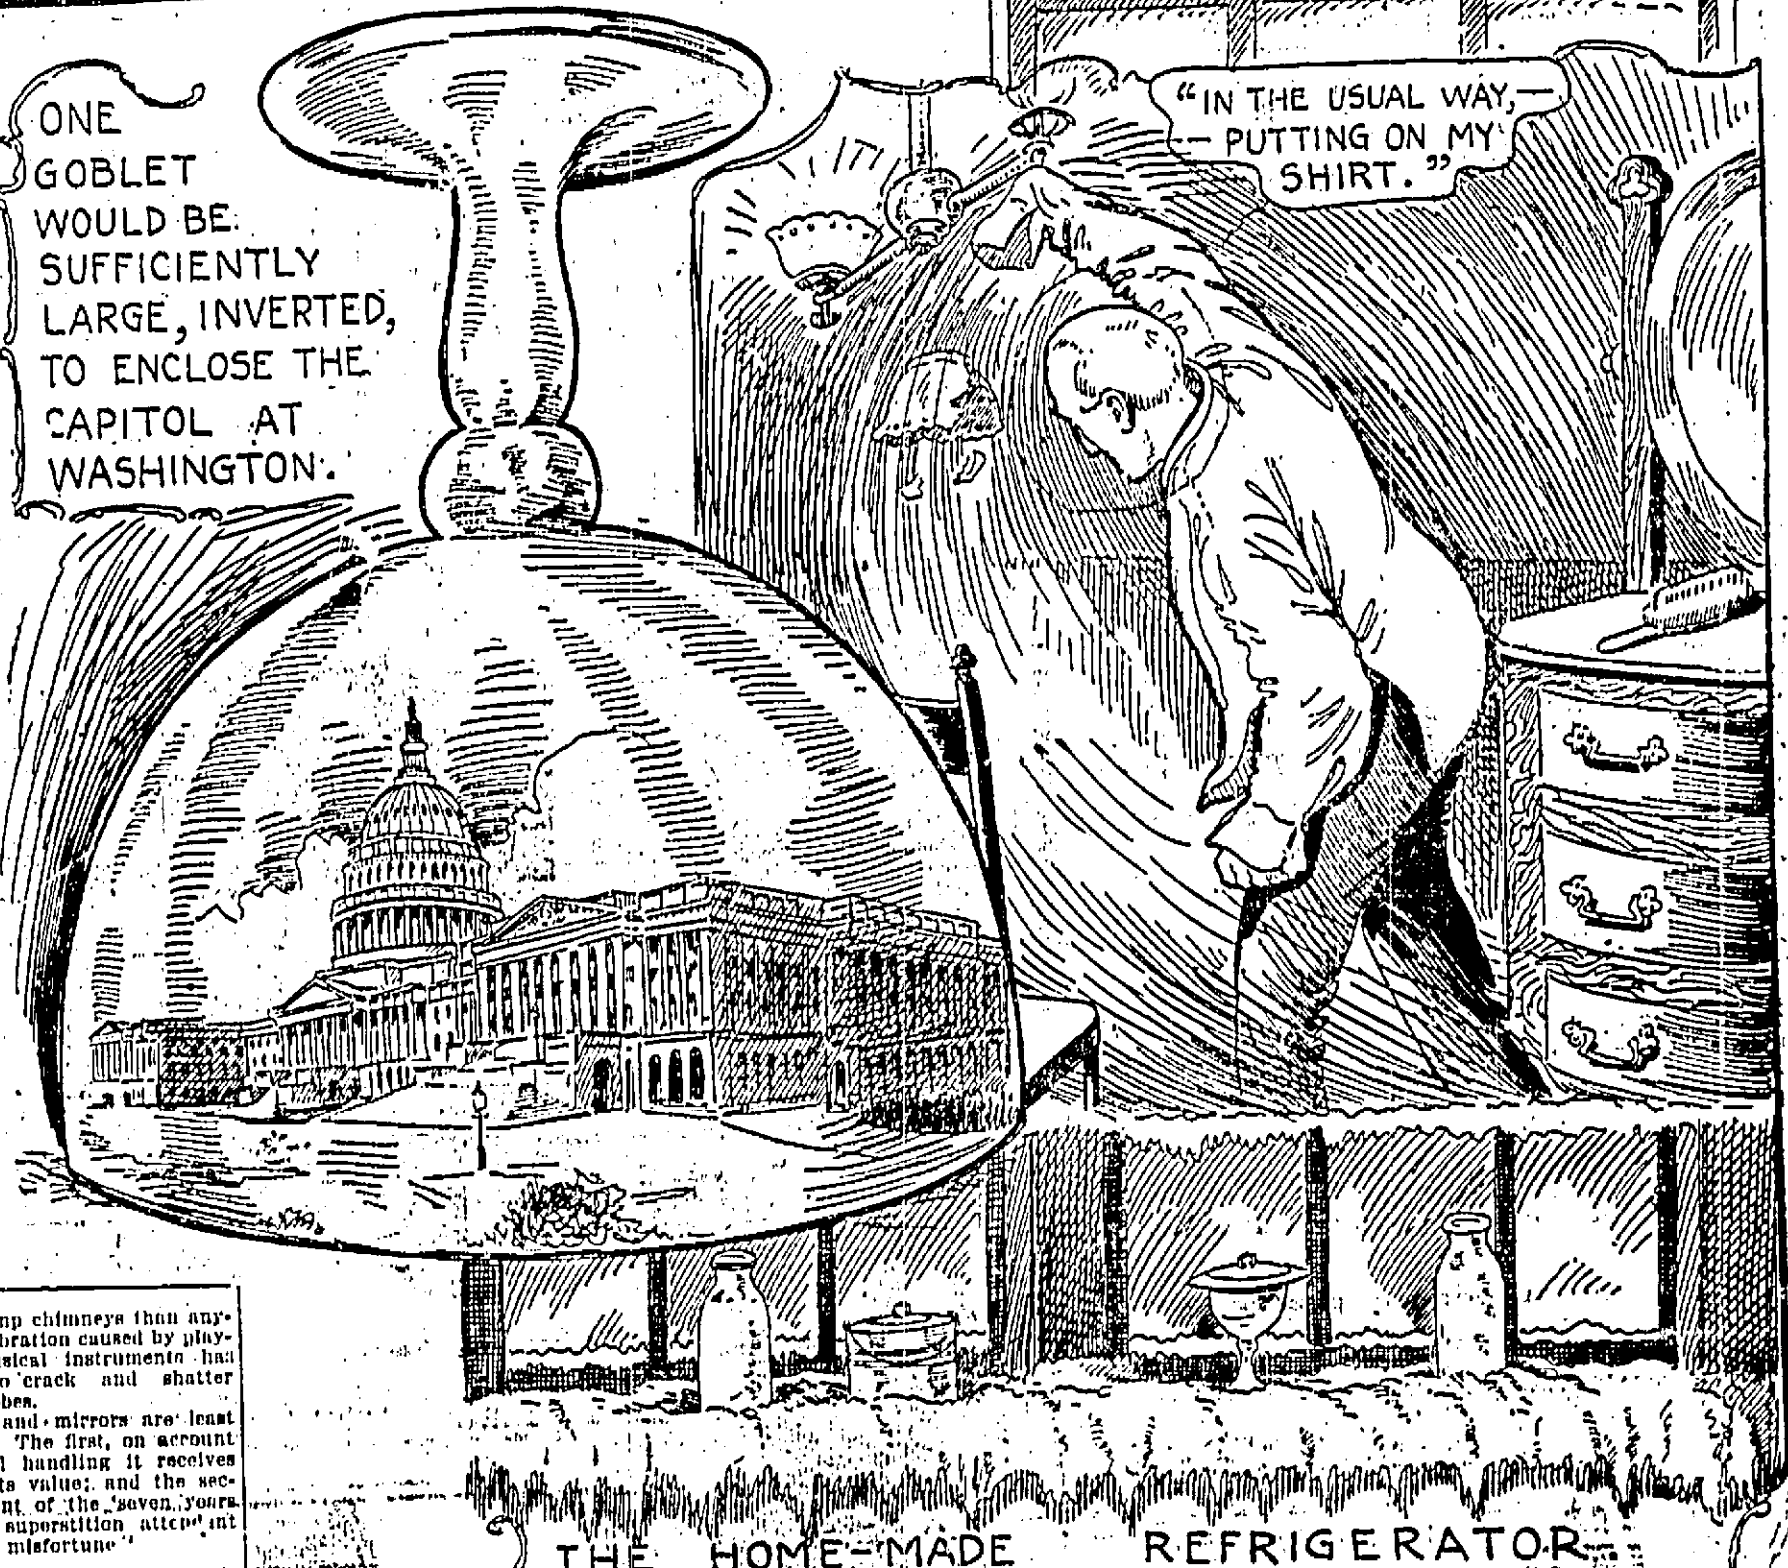

SAM'S LIST.
3 lamp chimneys.....	30c
3 goblets.....	15c
1 gas globe.....	50c
1 kitchen window pane.....	10c
1 piece fancy glass.....	40c
2 fruit jars.....	30c
Total.....	$1.75

"How did you break the gas globe?" asked the member who had considered the first estimate too low. "In the usual way," answered Statistical Sam, "putting on my shirt." "Oh, yes," he continued, "I didn't include in that list of mine a couple of milk bottles that the bottoms dropped out of recently when we went to bring them in from our home-made refrigerator."

"Two to one your refrigerator is the same as our's in the winter time out on the window sill," some one said.

"Well, anyway," replied Statistical Sam, "I didn't have to pay for the bottles, I told the dairy they were that way when I took them in from the back porch." Then he went on: "Sudden cold striking hot glass, or sudden heat striking cold glass, is the principal cause of breakage. Next comes slipping from the hands and falling. Many table glasses are broken by heavy china plates slipping from an edge-up position and bumping into them. Cold air draughts break more lamp chimneys than anything else. Vibration caused by playing upon musical instruments has been known to crack and shatter chandelier globes."

ONE GOBLET WOULD BE SUFFICIENTLY LARGE, INVERTED, TO ENCLOSE THE CAPITOL AT WASHINGTON.

A Great Sale of Winter Garments

Must Readjust Our Stocks and Prepare for the Incoming of Spring Merchandise

All Fall and Winter Suits, Cloaks and Furs must be disposed of by the end of the season. This is a hard and fast rule with us. It necessitates a great sacrificing of profits for us but at the same time affords you the greatest money-saving opportunities of the entire season. The result is this sale. Indeed a great opportunity to buy cloaks, suits and furs. Take note of the following very radical reductions:

PRICES CUT IN HALF

We have taken from our stock and put in lots by themselves, 50 children's cloaks, 100 women's cloaks and jackets.

THE CHILDREN'S GARMENTS consist of plain and fancy good wool materials, former prices $5.00 to $15.00.

THE WOMEN'S CLOAKS we show in red, blue, brown, gray and tan, excellent wool materials, latest styles, former prices $10.00 to $25.00.

ALSO A LINE OF WOMEN'S CARACUL JACKETS, warm and comfortable, for riding or street wear, lined with the best grade of satin, mostly black, some gray and brown, former prices $18.00 to $25.00.

The above garments we offer at prices cut in two. Look at the tags, read the former prices marked in plain figures and the garment is yours for just HALF.

Cloth Cloaks and Suits at 1-3 Off

All of the balance of our stock of beautiful winter garments, consisting of 90 black cloaks and 75 colored garments, complete range of sizes from 32 to 46, we offer without reserve at one-third off from the marked price, which surely represents an immense saving.

SUITS—By actual count we commence this sale with 64 suits all told, so you see it will not pay to put off coming too long as the prices are interesting many women. People who have waited for this opportunity to buy ready-to-wear garments will do well to make hay while the sun shines, especially while we show such excellent assortments. The best to be found in the city. You will find here stylish, reliable garments, such as are carried by The Big Store, made especially for us. Not sample lines, which are often much worn before the manufacturer offers them as samples.

You will be given every attention, whether you come to buy or to get posted. Our time is yours. Feel free to come and look.
